MI SCOUT VERDICT
Shortlist candidate for clubs seeking a young CF with output, box craft and resale logic.

EXECUTIVE READ

Recruitment angle: Stassin is a performance-confirmed young No.9 with box movement, finishing value and enough link-play to operate beyond a pure poacher role.

Best context: chance-creation teams needing a penalty-box reference who can connect play and attack cutbacks or crosses.

Risk: valuation has already moved; upside depends on fee discipline, role fit and translation of Ligue 2 output upward.

Opportunity: strong 2025/26 output and age profile make him a higher-value shortlist option rather than a low-cost discovery.

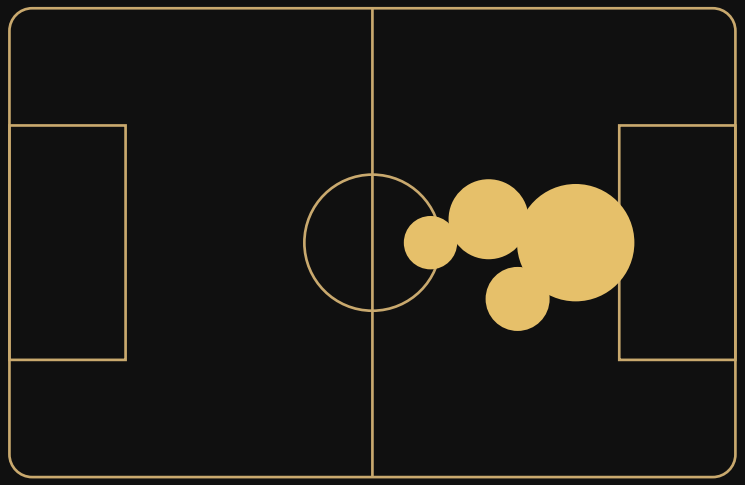
02 - Tactical Profile

ROLE HEATMAP



Primary attacking zones (illustrative)

ROLE IDENTITY: BOX STRIKER / LINK-FORWARD

Central box occupation: strongest value arrives in the penalty area through timing, positioning and first-contact quality.
Link support: can connect attacks with lay-offs and short combinations when used as a reference point.
Finishing zones: between the posts, cutback lanes and second-ball moments.

BEST-FIT SYSTEMS
- Chance-creation teams
- Box-entry/cross volume
- 4-2-3-1 / 4-3-3 CF
- Teams needing a reference

LOWER-FIT SYSTEMS
- Low chance-volume teams
- Pure transition-only systems
- Isolated No.9 roles
- High fee pressure environments

COACHING FOCUS
- First touch under pressure
- Explosive separation
- High-level pressing triggers
- Shot selection vs tighter CBs

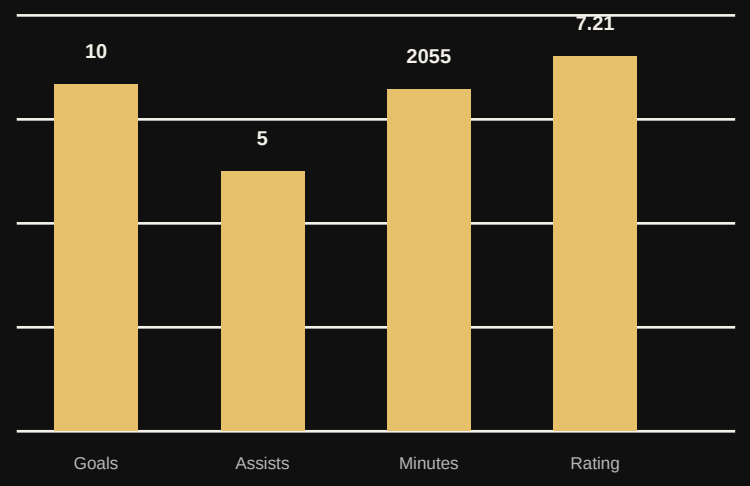
PUBLIC USAGE AND OUTPUT SNAPSHOT



Public usage snapshot - screening view, not a final recruitment model.

INTERPRETATION

Usage profile: established attacking contributor rather than a hidden rotation profile.

Key signal: double-digit goal output plus assist value supports a more complete forward reading.

Market reality: public valuation has already increased, so this is not a low-cost discovery profile.

Recruitment implication: value lies in age, role clarity, output proof and resale logic - but fee control is essential.

RECOMMENDED VIDEO CHECKLIST

- Finishing quality vs set defenses
- Link play when pressed from behind
- Movement timing on cutbacks
- Aerial or box duels vs stronger CBs
- Pressing triggers and recovery runs

04 - Scout Assessment

MI SCOUT SCORING

SYSTEM FIT	MARKET OPPORTUNITY	UPSIDE	IMMEDIATE IMPACT	RISK CONTROL
7.8 / 10	6.4 / 10	7.4 / 10	7.0 / 10	6.8 / 10

STRENGTHS

- Penalty-box movement and first-contact timing
- Proven 2025/26 output profile in Ligue 2
- Useful link-forward value for chance-creation teams
- Age and contract profile supports resale logic if fee is controlled

RISKS / DEVELOPMENT

- Market value already elevated compared with hidden targets
- Needs validation against higher tempo and stronger CBs
- Explosive separation is not the primary edge
- Role requires service; impact falls in low-chance teams

FINAL RECOMMENDATION

Status: Shortlist as a premium monitored CF opportunity, not a low-cost hidden buy.
Ideal buyer: club needing a young box striker/link-forward with output proof and resale pathway.
MI Scout Final View: higher-value profile with clear tactical identity; scalable if acquired at disciplined fee.

SUGGESTED EMAIL / DM HOOK

I prepared a targeted recruitment profile on Lucas Stassin, focusing on box-striker value, link-forward upside and resale logic.

If relevant, I can also deliver a 3-player forward shortlist comparing different role profiles: transition No.9, link-forward and box striker.
